

Comptroller of the Currency
Administrator of National Banks

US Department of the Treasury

Biographies

Jennifer C. Kelly
Deputy Comptroller Midsize and Credit Card Bank
Supervision

Jennifer Kelly is responsible for supervision and oversight of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency's (OCC) Midsize and Credit Card Bank Supervision programs.

Ms. Kelly's portfolio includes 28 midsize companies, with 66 national charters whose total assets aggregate $271 billion. She is also responsible for 20 nationally chartered banks whose activities are limited to credit card lending.

Ms. Kelly joined the OCC in 1979 as an assistant national bank examiner in San Francisco and was commissioned as a national bank examiner in 1983. She has a broad supervision background, including extensive experience in problem bank supervision and policy development, as well as a year-long assignment to the Bank of England's bank supervision department.

Prior to assuming her current position in January 2003, Ms. Kelly served as the deputy comptroller for continuing education, with responsibility for the training and development of the OCC's examining staff.

Ms. Kelly is a native of Glens Falls, N.Y. She holds a bachelor's of arts degree in Economics from Mount Holyoke College in South Hadley, Mass.

